

Stalking - Legal Information on the Internet

ABA Journal This site is not exclusively for lawyers. It offers several great articles, features and reports on a variety of legal issues.

British Columbia - Dial-a-Law Dial-a-Law offers legal information to the following territories: Alberta, British Columbia, Nova Scotia, Ontario, and Quebec.

FindLaw An impressive law search engine that helps you search for documents, legal guides, or court decisions.

The Internet Law Journal Here you will find articles and news on the legal issues facing the Internet.

Law.com The most current legal news with interest to the public, business, students and professionals.

TheLAW.com Former New York City Mayor Ed Koch aims to help the public become more informed about the law. Internet users can download documents, perform research, and have live chats with lawyers. This site will also aid you in finding legal representation.

Law Research A great site for professionals gathering information and those individuals getting started on learning about the law.

legalopinion.com This site puts you in contact with an attorney in your area.

MyCounsel Here you will find practical legal advice toward answering typical legal questions.

Personal Protection Order The Eaton County Prosecuting Attorney site outlines useful information on personal protection orders.

PrairieLaw.com This site seeks to help the average person understand the law and offers a variety of articles and advice on many topics.

U.S. and International Stalking Laws:

Angels In Blue (page on State Stalking Laws) Links to stalking laws for each State are made available. Much more information on stalking can also be found on the site.

Australian Stalking Laws This site outlines the stalking laws in Australia.

Canada's Criminal Law: Stalking Legal information on stalking is provided.

Canada's Stalking Laws This site outlines the current stalking laws in Canada.

Irish Republic Stalking Laws This site outlines the current stalking laws in the Irish Republic.

The National Center for Victims of Crimes: State Stalking Laws This site quickly provides you with the stalking laws for each State.